(a) Scene augmentation: one transform of the reference frame per sample, shared by all views and the labels

Images are not modified. Every camera is lifted with the same transformed frame $G_b$, so the lifted evidence and the labels move together.

---

(b) Cross-sample view mixing: the cameras of sample b are lifted with alternating reference frames of the batch

